Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company, are named defendants in six suits filed with Henry Westfall, circuit clerk, today. Four of the suits are the outgrowth of the wreck of the Wiseman automobile July 30, when William E. Morton was killed and William M. Wiseman and Delbert Morton were injured by the southbound Burlington passenger train.

William M. Wiseman alleges that as "the direct result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of the defendants in failing to give warning of the approach of said train by ringing bell or blowing whistle, the plaintiff is injured and damaged to the extent of $300."

Martha Belle Morton brings suit against the same corporation for causing the death of her husband and sole support when said husband was riding with William Wiseman the morning of July 30. For the death of her husband the plaintiff asks of the defendant the sum of $10,000 in damages.

Delbert Morton brings suit against the railroad for personal injuries suffered in the previously named accident for the sum of $3,00, which are the damages he alleges he has suffered as the result of severe injuries at hand of defendant.

Joe Carden sues Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company for damages amounting to $800 which he claims due him as the result of the negligence of the defendants in failing to deliver a consignment of three bulls to a St. Joseph firm which the defendants received for shipment at Qiutman.

E. A. Montgomery sues the same company for failing to deliver a consignment of fourteen head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, received at Quitman for delivery in St. Joseph. The petition prays for damages to the amount of $1,800.

"WOMAN AND WIFE"

TWO ARMY TRUCKS WILL ARRIVE SOON

FRED SMITH GETS WORD FROM STATE HIGHWAY DEP'T

SHIPPED FROM ST. JOE

May Arrive Here Today—County Court Can Now Get Work Done This Fall With Them

County Clerk Fred Smith received word this morning from H. D. Judson, state highway commissioner, stating that two army trucks are being shipped to the county court of Nodaway county from St. Joseph. The named are of two-ton capacity. They have a Nash-Quad chassis with ammunition bodies.

The county requested that three trucks be sent them by the government, two two-ton trucks and one thre-ton truck. It is supposed that the later will come in a later shipment.

Unquestionably the arrival of the trucks will mean much to the officials of the county court who have been hindered to a great extent in their road work this summer by lack of transportation facilities.

Only the other day when work was being done on a bridge northwest of Maryville two trucks had to be hired to haul sand and cement for concrete work and it was almost impossible to get the trucks, much delay resulting therefrom.

Four bridge gangs are at work in the county and much work lies ahead of them. One gang under W. W. Randall is putting in a concrete bridge over White Cloud creek northwest of Maryville. Another gang under Chas. Hollensbee is working in Independence township near Gaynor. Joe Good is directing work on bridges in the vicinity of Hughes township near Skidmore. John Hollensbee has men working on the road between Conception and Clyde.

With two big army trucks with which to haul sand and cement, bridge work will progress at a much faster rate than it has been during the summer and much work that the county court felt like it would be impossible to get at this fall can be done.

YEHLE AND ELLISON RETURN FROM EASTERN TRIP

Mr. Yehle Gives Report on Market Conditions — No Indications of Falling Prices

C .W. Yehle, president of the Alderman-Yehle Dry Goods Co., and George Robb Ellison returned this morning from a trip to Eastern points. Mr. Yehle was on a buying trip for his store and visited the markets at Chicago, New York and St. Louis.

Mr. Yehle said conditions are very unsettled and there was a great deal of unrest. He stated there were no indications of prices falling and that in some instances on account of the scarcity of articles, they probably would be higher.

In talking to a Democrat-Forum representative, he said:

"There are no changes in the styles and they are very conservative. While the prices are somewhat higher, yet in some instances they are not as high as they have been as they were contracted for far enough ahead and are still very reasonable. Some articles are very scarce. The foreign buyers are numerous in the markets buying larger quantities.

"The markets are in a very unsettled condition and there is a great deal of unrest. While in New York, the street car men were out on a strike for two days and there were numerous other strikes of other laboring people."

Mr. Ellison visited many points in Canada and spent a week at Perce, Canada, with relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Somerville of this city, who are visiting there. He saw the Prince of Wales at St. Johns. He went to New York by the way of Boston and joined Mr. Yehle there. A visit at Washington and also at St. Louis concluded their trip. At Washington, they called on Senator James Reed.

Mr. Somerville will return to Maryville about the first of the month while Mrs. Somerville will remain for a longer visit at Perce.

MAN WITH EIGHT WIVES GIVES RULES FOR WOOING

(By International News Service)

Charles H. Wilson, Methodist minister's son, who admits he has eight wives living, pleaded guilty of bigamy in general sessions in New York City and was remanded to the Tombs. He recently finished an eighteen months' prison term at Waupun, Wis., for grand larceny. Wilson attributes his "marriage spree" to the actions of his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Stanton Wilson, whom he married in Davenport, Ia., and also to the fact that he was a traveling salesman. His rules for winning women, sent from his cell in the New York Tombs, follows:

"The way to win a woman is to go right after her. Women like to be swept off their feet.

"Always make your appeal to the better side in woman's nature and the good that is in them. They shun sordidness.

"Be neat and orderly about your person. Dress well, not necessarily expensively. I never paid more than $18 for a suit in my life."

MARYVILLE GIRL HOME FROM FRANCE

MISS EDITH WELLS RETURNS FROM CANTEEN SERVICE OVERSEAS

VISITED BATTLEFIELDS

Desolation in Devastated Regions Cannot be Imagined—Use German Prisoners in Reconstruction Work

Miss Edith Wells arrived in Maryville this morning from service in France with the canteen service of the American Red Cross.

Miss Wells was in overseas servic from March to July of this year. She was stationed at Brest, France, where the American troops embarked for return to the United States. This canteen was closed in July and the workers were released. Miss Wells sailed on the Maui, August 8, reaching Philadelphia August 16.

The Red Cross is preparing to close up its affairs in France as rapidly as possible. All canteens have now been discontinued, that at Brest being the st to close. Headquarters at Paris remain open.

Before being transferred to overseas service Miss Wells was engaged in Red Cross work in San Francisco, where she was field representative for the Pacific division. She applied for overseas service in November and was in New York when the armistice obviated the necessity of sending more workersand she returned to her work in San Francisco. In March of this year she received sailing orders and was sent to the canteen at Brest.

Speaking of her work, Miss Wells said: "I liked it very much; it was hard work, but it was very interesting." As an illustration of the magnitude of the work at Brest, Miss Wells said that 30,000 buns and doughnuts were baked and distributed among the doughboys daily. An especially interesting feature of the work for Miss Wells was that with the sailors, whose ships were stationed off Brest, this occasion being the only one that was able to reach the enlisted men of the navy.

Another important division of the work was the infirmary, through which all casualties and "sick" cases passed before returning to the United States.

After the closing of the Brest canteen, Miss Wells had opportunity to visit the devastated regions of northern France, Rheims, Chauteau Thierry, Belleau Wood and other battlefields. She has a large number of snapshots of thes famous fields, some of them taken in actual battle. "You can not imagine the desolation at Rheims," said Miss Wells. "Of a city of 150,000 people, only thirteen buildings escaped the shelling of the Germans." The Rheims cathedral, which was thought to have been mutilated beyond all hope of restoration, can be partly restored, according to Miss Wells.

German prisoners are being used by the Allies in the reconstruction of the devastated regions. They are also used in the various camps in the country in similar work.

The most pitiful scenes are enacted in the return of refugees to the homes from which they were driven five years ago by the Germans in their ruthless advance. Miss Wells saw many of these wanderers.

Miss Wells is the sister of Miss Mabel Wells, C. Edwin Wells and J. T. Wells of Maryville.

Guests at Remus Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Remus and daughter, Katherine, went to St. Joseph yesterday morning to meet them and they motored here in the Landis car. Capt. Landis who is stationed at Camp Dodge, Ia., is enjoying a fifteen days leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Dowden returned last evening fram a week's visit with the parents of Mrs. Dowden at Lake Okoboji, Ia. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas of Terrill, Ia., who will visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Dowden.

BALLY-HO MAN, DESPISED BUT IMPORTANT PART OF CIRCUS

"Hurry-y-y! We're going to feed the Wild Man! Stand close to the platform!"

All of which concerns the bally-hoo man. An unexploited member of the circus life he is, working day and night, his lungs, his throat slowing turning to leather—that the wonders beneath the canvas may be told of. And just as the great canvases are needed, so is he needed. Thus it is that soon there will come the sound of his voice, the tapping of his cane and his apeals to the onlooker to "step aside." For on Saturday, Aug. 30th, the Yankee Robinson Three Ring Wild Animal Circus comes to Maryville for a day's visit on the Holt pasture grounds. According to the most iron-clad promises of those in advance of the circus, it has almost doubled in size since its last visit here—in fact, the Yankee Robinson was selected from the countless big attractions throughout the United States as the big crowning feature of the Nebraska State Fair and in company with Eddie Rickenbacker, the greatest of American "Aces", who will fly each day, these two big exhibitions are expected by the state fair officials to draw more people within the gates of the fair grounds than were ever in attendance during previous years. Many are the features this year with Yankee Robinson—for instance, Young Hackenschmidt, the world's greatest middleweight wrestler marvel will meet all comers at each performance and incidentally forfeit one hundred dollars to any man he cannot win a fall from in fifteen minutes.

By the way, a sample of everything is to be seen in the parade, even to the open animal cages and the thirty clowns. The Bally-Hoo Man? Of course, they'll be there also, for no parade would be complete without them.

PIONEER OF WEST DEAD.

Dodge City, Kans., Aug. 23.—A. J. Anthony, 89, one of the pioneer plainsmen of this part of Kansas, is dead at his home here. He is one of the little company of men who lived in Ford county for more than fifty years. Mr. Anthony came to Dodge City—it was then Fort Dodge—in the early seventies. He has seen the country grow from an army post station, stage town and "cow" town to a city of more than five thousand.

Mr. Anthony was a stage driver for Barlow Anderson over the old "Overland Stage" route from Kansas City, Mo., to Santa Fe, New Mexico. The stage made the trip in thirteen days.

NEWS FROM NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Conception Courier.

O. E. Klass, the live wire auctioneer of near Clyde, recently purchased twenty head of pure bred Shropshie ewes, for which he paid the fancy price of $60 each. His herd buck took second prize at the State Fair, and is certainly a good one. He also has twelve head of first class Poland-China hogs. Oscar says he intends to be able in the near future to give the people of this section the best in the pure bred line, both in sheep and Poland Chinas.

Clearmont News.

The three scolarships offered by the Clearmont high school for the pupils in the township making the highest grades in the eighth grade examinations, all went to the pupils of the Maple Lawn district, which was taught by Mrs. Ethel Lawrence. Burl Beam took first, a three year scholarship in the Clearmont high school; Raymond Beam second, a two year scolarship, and Ellen Milbank third, a one y ear scholarship.

There was quite a little excitement in town Monday evening for about five minutes. Wm. Johnson, Ed Teuscher and Mike Russell drove up to the Garrett garage and called for some gas, and as Ira Newlon was filling the tank flames burst out and for about two minutes it looked like the entire car would burn, but fortunately, the fire was quenched with no other injury to the car than to burn the cushions pretty badly, but Ira Newlon got one of his hands pretty badly burned, but not seriously. The car was not running while the tank was being filled and the only cause known for the fire was that Mr. Johnson, who was looking after the tank, was smoking and that is thought to be the cause. This should be a lesson to all to let the smoking go while handling gasoline.

Parnell Sentinel.

Ernest Hughes, another Parnell soldier boy, returned here Sunday. He was discharged at Camp Dodge, Iowa, Saturday. Ernest was in the quartermaster's department and was overseas eight months, having been sent over after the armistice was signed. He is sure looking fine and weighs considerable more than he did when he entered the service. He is visiting his brother, Alvin, east of town.

The airplane that was to have been here during the two days of the races arrived here Sunday morning about 11 o'clock with Lieut. Hyde of Kansas City in charge. He came from Maryville here and was accompanied by Frank Schumacher. On leaving Maryville they soared over Ravenwood, Stanberry, Albany and other towns, sometimes at an altitude of 4,000 feet. After circling over Parnell a number of times the machine landed in the race grounds just north of town. The first person to take a ride was Miss Pauline Jones, followed by her father, Ben Allyn Jones, Jimmy O'Brien and Cecil Brown. No more passengers were taken up until about 5 o'clock. Alva Breit of Worth was the first, followed by Miss Opal Ingram, Orley Miller of Sheridan, Ed West of Gaynor, Drexel (Jack) Morgan and Frederick Breit, Jr., Frederick Breit, Sr., and Ernest Wheatley. About 3 o'clock Lieut Hyde and mechanician left for Savannah where they are making flights this week at the fair grounds.

A number of cars of wheat have been shipped out of here since the threshing season began. Three cars went south Monday night.

W. A. Stickle, while threshing on the John Garrard farm last Thursday, came across a rattlesnake two feet long that had six rattles on it. Mr. Stickle killed the reptile and has the rattles in his possession. It is seldom one sees a snake of this kind any more, but at one time they were very numerous.

Paul Morin, who has been in the hospital corps of the U. S. navy, returned home Tuesday noon. When he first enlisted he was sent to San Francisco where he was stationed until six months ago, when he was transferred to Philadelphia. Paul did not get overseas. He was mustered out at St. Louis Monday. His many friends are glad to see him home again.

Elias Klaas commenced dismantling the old frame business house south of the park Monday morning that he purchased from Barmann, the auto man, last week. The building was originally built for a harness shop soon after the town started in 1887, but for a number of years it has been used for other businesses. Millinery store, pool hall, residence, printing office, etc., are among the uses it has been put to.

Geo. Sturgeon is another Fairviewite who had extra good wheat, his yield being about 24 bushels to the acre, and it tested 58 or better, putting him in the $2.05 per bushel class. He attributes his success as a wheat grower to working the ground. He plows, double discs and harrows the ground, getting it like a garden before drilling his wheat, and he thinks it pays.

Dr. Kirk has been very busy welcoming little strangers into our midst. Of these the only boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, and girls arrived at the homes of Roy Clark, Arch Martin, Dan Shearer and Don Albright. The Martin baby has been christened Sarah Florence.

Postmaster Wray is wondering if the government will soon be wanting him to sell Bevo along with the batter cakes.—Pickering Items in Hopkins Journal.

Our elevator men figure that threshing is about half over in this vicinity. Thousands of buhsels of wheat have already been shipped from here and more would have been shipped if cars could have been secured.—Pickering Items in Hopkins Journal.

Last week Dr. Maxwell bought of Miss Eva Brainard the two brick buildings near the Presbyterian church now occupied by the Burnet music store and by Miss Grace Gladman. The doctor will eventually use both rooms for offices but for the present will occupy the corner building, meaning that the new music man will have to find a new home.

Some of us were given the privilege this week of seeing a check for $3,563.90, which had been made to the order of A. L. Pistole, one of the south side farmers. This amount was paid for English blue grass seed, of which Ava had 40 acres, making an average of $84 per acre for the seed alone besides a lot of good pasturage for his stock.

Sam Armstrong took out a Fordson tractor and gang plow attachment Monday and is now working at his wheat ground getting ready for next year's crop.

Fred Carter purchased a new Waterloo Boy 12-25 tractor and 3-bottom gang plow Saturday. Both tractors were sold through the McCleave hardware.

Robert Pittsenberger of near Bedison had his Dodge car stolen at the Maryville fair and has heard nothing of it since, although the authorities have been on the lookout for it. Several cars were stolen at Maryville during the fair.

Little Mary Breit, daughter of Walter Breit and wife, ran a part of a needle in her foot on Wednesday before the picnic. The needle was removed Monday of this week. The misfortune little Mary considerable pain.

Chautauqua this year will be held on September 3 to 7 inclusive, and the dates are drawing near. It is high time that every family in the community is making plans to hear every number of this assembly. At a meeting of the guarantors Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: Clyde Perkins, chairman; C. E. Goff, secretary; J. F. Tulloch and Elmer Smith, grounds committee. Every guarantor is a committee to see that tickets are sold in sufficient numbers to make the chautauqua pay out.

Burlington Junction Post.

Boyer & Plummer, local stock buyers, shipped a total of 117 loads of stock from July 1, 1918, to July 1, 1919 instead of 84 loads, as was reported in last week's issue of the Post. The records at the depot from which the information was secured, were not complete, hence the mistake. This would make a total of 276 loads shipped from this point last year.

S. S. Webb was exhibiting some Sudan grass Tuesday that was grown on his farm southeast of town. He drilled the seed about the 15th of May and the grass made a wonderful growth, reaching a height of 8 feet and 8 inches in three months. He says it will yield two tons or more an acre. The possibilities of this grass are almost unlimited and there will doubtless be more of it sowed each year.

Edwin F. Caldwell has bought the old Star barn and two lots at the corner of Main and Davis streets, of W. H. Jones. He will move the barn to one of the Caldwell farms west of town, but has not decided what disposition to make of the lots. A little later he may erect a modern building on them.

Jesse F. Robertson, judge of probate, is moving this week to Maryville to make his home. For the present he will store his household goods in Burlington Junction and he and Mrs. Robertson will live at the hotel. R. N. Barber, who purchased the Robertson residence in Burlington Junction, will move to it.

T. F. Brady of Stanberry and "Dutch" Horn of this place had a head-on collision at the Roseberry hill east of town Sunday night. Horn was ascending the hill when the Brady car started down. He pulled as far to the right as possible, but Brady evidently lost control of his machine, for it veered to the left and struck the Horn car head-on. Both machines were badly damaged. The windshield, front wheels and radiator of the Horn car were broken and the Brady car did not fare any better. Mr. Brady paid the damages and had repairs made at a local garage.

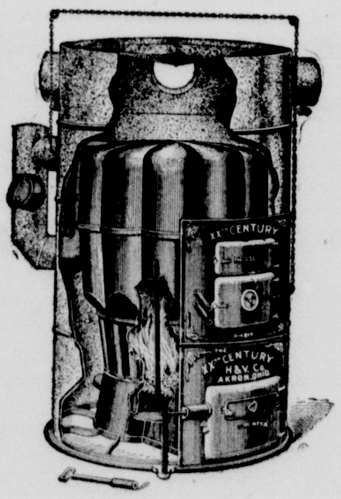
One days time installs the Homer

The Homer Pipeless Furnace is as easy to set up as an ordinary stove. The Homer man cuts a square hole in the floor for the register, connects the register to the furnace, runs the smoke pipe to the chimney and the Homer is ready to fire. The whole installation takes only a few hours.

HOMER

Original Patented PIPELESS FURNACE.

The Homer is simplicity itself—easy to install and easy to operate. It is shipped securely crated with everything that is needed for a quick and proper installation. There is no need of mussing up your house or disturbing your walls to set up a Homer.



One Combination Register, Assisted by the THERMO-SEAL INNER LINING

does all the work. Because the pipeless way of heating is nature's way of heating, the perfect Homer costs less to own and operate than any other type of furnace.

The Thermo-Seal Inner Lining guarantees that the Homer will heat and ventilate your home perfectly. Also, the Homer will not heat your basement and spoil vegetables because the The Thermo-Seal Inner Lining prevents the escape of heat into the cellar.

We are also installing the XXTH Century pipe and pipeless furnaces. The XXTH Century is an old reliable furnace and we can show you many of them in use here.

Be sure to talk to our furnace man before deciding on the furnace you want.

ST. LOUIS TRUCKS ON BUSINESS TOUR

TO INTEREST FARMERS IN TRUCKING PRODUCE TO CITY

FAVORABLE COMMENT

Considerable Enthusiasm Aroused Among Farmers—Need of Hard-Surfaced Roads Emphasized

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—The advantage to the farmer of trucking his produce to markket, the need for St. Louis to advertise itself throughout the smaller towns of Missouri and the handicap of the lack of good roads has been demonstrated by the 585-mille tour of St. Louis trucks which has just ended here.

Twenty-isx trucks started on a trip last Friday, which included many of the smaller towns in central Missouri, with the State Fair at Sedalia as its destination. Only twenty-four trucsk returned, two of the original trucks returned, two of the original

Robert E. Lee, editor of the Auto Review, who was pilot of the trip, says that the expedition was successful from every point of view. Farmers were enthusiastic over the idea of using more trucks and several sales were made.

That the people appreciated the interest which the St. Louis automobile trade and the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce were taking in them was evident from our reception all along the line," he says.

"The trip convinced us that St. Louis long has neglected its nearby business friends. We have sent trade-boosting trains to Alabama, Nebraska and Texas, but we have taken it for granted that the merchants within 100 miles of here were our friends. We stopped at nearly every town en-route, spreading truck and St. Louis propaganda."

That Missouri is in need of hard roads was demonstrated by the trip. Lee thinks. He says money should be spent improving the roads to induce tourists to go through Missouri towns.

"Transcontinental touring through Missouri never will be at its best until hard roads are built across the state and until bridges take the place of ferries. The ferries at the Gasconade and the Osage river are primitive affairs. One is pulled by hand and the other by a steam launch. The ferry at Boonville is pulled by steamboat. We lost from four to seven hours at each ferry."

Charles A. Bothell, manager of the freight department of the Packard Motor company of Missouri, says: Farmers realize that the use of trucks for transportation is of importance in lowering the cost of living. Fifty or sixty miles represent a four hour run by truck. Without trucks farmers living a great distance from railroads will not raise perishable foodstuffs because of inability to transport them to market."

SAYS MISSOURI LAND SELLS FOR $1,800 AN ACRE FIGURE

Former Representative W. T. Heatman Has to Prove His Statement to Some Illinois Men

Jefferson City, Mo.—Former representative W. T. Heathman of Randolph County, now a traveling salesman, is responsible for statement that there is farm land in Missouri selling for $1,800 per acre.

Heathman made this statement after listening to the boasting of Illinois men that land in that state is being sold for as high as $350 per acre.

The $1,800 per acre Missouri land is down in the strawberry belt of Southeast Missouri, where one acre of berries will sometimes produce enough money to buy the entire crop of a small farm in Illinois.

The Illinois men doubted the statement made by Heathman but he produced the documentary evidence and further referred them to various responsible people of Neosho, Carthage and Anderson and other places in Southeast Missouri for verification.

PROHIBITION IN OMAHA HITS RAILROADS.

Omaha, Nebr., Aug. 23.—Along with fewer broken heads, fewer jags, fewer "lost" suitcases and other things that accompany a "good time" in the big city, Omaha has sold fewer railroad tickets to Kansas City and St. Joseph.

"Where we formerly sold a hundred tickets to Kansas City and St. Joe," said Joe Milk, stationmaster here, "we now sell maybe twenty-five of thirty."

War-time prohibition is the cause, he said.

More than 22,000,000 knitted articles were turned out by Red Cross women from the time the United States entered the war to the end of last March.

MISSOURI STATE LETTER.

Jefferson City, Aug. 23.—T. S. Mosby, chairman of the Cole couny Democratic committee, has declined on behalf of that body a proposition from the Republican committee of the county to join in calling a primary election on the League of Nations.

Personally, Mosby is inclined to back Senator James A. Reed in his fight against President Wilson and the League, but there is little doubt as to the sentiment of other local party leaders being in favor of the League and against Reed.

Sentiment against co-operating in the movement to call such a primary election received a decided black eye when the women's auxiliary committee of the Democratic committee in Cole county passed unanimously a resolution endorsing the League and calling upon Senators Reed and Spencer to vote for it without reservations.

The primary election proposition advocated by the Republican committee was also discouraged by C... W. C. Irwin and other Republican leaders.

Thousands of Reed, Borah and Johnson speeches are being "franked out" from Jefferson City to voters in Cole, Osage, Miller, Gasconade, Moniteau and other Missouri counties in an effort to create anti-League of Nations sentiment.

Refusal of the Democratic county committee to join in the movement kills the proposed primary.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 23.—Mrs. J. B. Allen, wife of the clerk of the clery of the supereme court, is critically ill at her home in this city and is not expected to recover. She has been in failing health for the past five months. Her son, Robert Allen, edtir of the Butler, Mo., Times, has been summoned to her bedside.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—While the government has been making a determined efforts to reduce the high cost of living through lowering the price of staple commodities, the cost of foodstuffs has been ascending. It costs more to live this week than it did last, as a canvass of the wholesale grocery and market districts has revealed. In cases where wholesale prices have increased the retailers have added generally about 25 per cent.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—Construction of the new four-story clinic building on the northeast corner of the city hospital grounds here will be started within the next thirty days. This is announced by Dr. Rolla Henry, manager of the hospital. The building will cost more than $200,000.

The first floor of the new building will be used for the receiving room. The other three floors will be used for dispensary, clinic and surgical rooms.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—Eight new municipal baby clinics wil be opened in tenement sections of the city in September, it is announced by John Schmoll, director of public welfare. The clinics wil be under the direction of the Municipal Nurses' Board.

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—Everyone of the 184 local labor unions that will take part in the St. Louis Labor Day parade September 1 has had its wage scale increased at least once since Labor Day a year ago, according to J. W. Williams, treasurer of the Central Trades and Labor Council, who will be grand marshal of the parade. Some of these trades have had their pay raised several times in the last year.

Of the 35,000 men and women workers, who, according to the present estimates, will join the parade, the highest paid workers are members of the Almalgamated Steel and Tin Workers, with five unions.

M. U. COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE INSTALLS NEW GRAIN TESTS.

Laboratory Will Give Free Service to Missouri Farmers.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 21.—A grain testing laboratory which duplicates in all essential details the federal grain supervision laboratories in Kansas City and St. Louis, has been installed in the University of Missouri College of Agriculture.

Wheat, oats and corn are to be tested to determine if they measure up to the standards set by the United States Department of Agriculture. A laboratory course will be given as a part of the University farm crops course.

The laboratory is in charge of W. C. Etheridge, who says that all samples of grain sent in by Missouri farmers will be tested free of charge. According to Doctor Etheridge there is a two-fold benefit: The farmer is able to find out how he is treated in the market, and the College of Agriculture secures statistics as to the grades and quality of grain raised in Missouri.

"So far as I know," says, Mr. Etheredge, "there is no other college which has this feature as a part of its agriculture department."

Samples of grain will be tested to find the weight per bushel, amount of chaff and foreign matter and the percentage of moisture contained. These are the three tests which determine the grade of the grain and the subsequent price on the market.

SENATOR REED SAYS PARTY WILL RIGHT ITSELF SOON

Soothing Letter Preceeds Meeting to Act on the Endorsement of the League Covenant by the Democratic State Committee

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—Senator James A Reed has sent an apeal to Missouri Irish Democrats, asking that they not leave the party because the Democratic state committee endorsed the League of Nations at a meeting here August 11. The appeal is containel in a letter received by John P. Leahy, who, with other Irish-Americans, threatened to leave the party if the state committee approved the league pact.

The senator's letter is to be read tonight at a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom, called to indorse the action of the comimttee which appeared before the Democratic state committee. The organization also will discuss the advisability of urging a state convention to denounce the league.

Read's Letter to Leahy.

Senator Reed's letter to Leahy reads in part:

"Your correctly state the facts when you say that a substantial part of the strength of the Democratic party comes from citizens of Irish birth or Irish antecedents. I believe that all candid men who have regard for the old party must admit that a general exodus from it of the members just referred to would be a party disaster from which it would not soon recover.

"When it (the state committee) assumes to speak without authority and undertakes to usurp powers the people have reserved for themselves it merely attempts to constitute itself a boss of the party. Efforts of that kind always result in detriment to the party.

Not a Party Question.

"The question is not now a party question. It may never be a party question. The action of the twenty-nine members of the Democratic state committee can no more make a party question of it than the action of twenty-nine men and women meeting in any part of the state can make a party question of it.

"The whole atmosphere may be cleared, the whole issue may be in the background before the next campaign.

"However dear this question may therefore be to your hearts, and it cannot be closer to you than it is to me, it would seem that organized movement to leave the party would be a great mistake, and I most earnestly hope that no such action will be taken.

Confidence in the Party.

"I feel, therefore, a supreme confidence in the fact that our party will live through the difficulties and uncertainties of the present hour, and will kep its feet upon solid Democratic ground. And that it will do no act which will force men who love their country to leave the party.

"Why should the action of twenty-nine men, who hapen to be temporary state committeemen, drive from the party thousands of solid, rock-ribbed Democrats, every one of whom has the same rights in the party as those gentlemen who happen to be temporary committeemen?

"Let all good Democrats who are opposed to the League of Nations and who want to preserve our rights and liberties, continue to battle. Public sentiment, in my opinion, is undoubtedly swinging our way. The document which was at first regarded as a sacred one, is now a subject for open debate. People are beginning to know that instead of being a mere agreement, which will put the world at peace, that after all it is only an offensive and defensive alliance by which we are bound to fight the battles of other countries and send our boys to die in the cause of foreign countries."

LOST ON M. U. SPORTS

Athletic Financial Statement Shows Deficit of $8,667.17

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 22—The financial statement of the athletic department of the University of Missouri issued yesterday by J. B. Gibson shows a total deficit of $8,667.17. Of this sum $6,149.57 was lost last year, due chiefly to canceled games, lack of interest, the S. A. T. C. and the war conditions.

Time in the history of basket ball at Missouri, that sport showed a profit, the usual deficit of from $200 to $700 changing to a profit of $210.

Due to the breakup in semesters and the result that many students will refuse to buy the all season sport tickets, which have sold for $5 in the past, it may be necessary to sell tickets for each sport this year. While it has been mentioned that the school might profit by selling individual tickets to each game, this idea has been looked on with disfavor by the athletic board.

Usual profits from football will more than make up this deficit, it was pointed out by Acting Director Gibson yesterday.

A TIRE TALK FOR MOTORISTS

Precautions That Should be Taken in Applying Tires to Assure Longer Life.

The careful application of tires is quite as necessary as the choice of the correct type. Especially should the best adaption of tire to rim be made a subject of concern.

Before applying a tire all rust and other foreign matter should be carefully removed from the rim. If rust has formed on the rim it will cause trouble at some later time, apart from the corroding influence of the rust. If tires have been driven deflated at any time, mud will probably have accumulated on the rims, and unless this is removed the tires cannot seat or fit properly. The danger of pinching inner tubes can best be reduced to a minimum by dusting soapstone or powdered mica on the rims, so that the tire beads will slip into the correct position easily.

Inflate the inner tubes just enough to round them out before placing them inside the casing. Do not use tubes of the wrong size, and be sure that the valves are equipped with spreaders adapted to the particular type of casting used, whether instance, clincher, quick detachable, or straight side. Valves in Firestone tubes are equipped with a universal spreader, and therefore are suitable for use in all three types.

Dust the inside of the case and the inner tube with powdered mica or talc. This will reduce friction and prevent adhesion of the tube to the case after they have been heated in service.

When the tires have been removed for some reason, it is a good idea, when reapplying, to reverse them, that is, to place the worn sides of the tires toward the car. It is not very generally known, though it is a fact, that almost all of the side wear on a tire comes on the outside; that is, on the side away from the car. The foregoing sounds Irish, I know, but it is a fact, nevertheless. This is due to road construction, rut wear, curb scraping, and such things. The life of a tire may be prolonged to such an extent that a great deal higher mileage may be secured by turning the tires about occasionally to secure even wear upon both sides.

I said that tire and rim should be suited to each other. If straight side tires are to be used on clincher rims, filler beads ought to be fitted in the rim clincher to keep the side walls of the casings from being chafed and gouged. To avoid as much as possible the tendency of straight side tubes to lift up from the rims at the inner edges of cables and in this way permit a rolling motion sideways, it is advisable to have more spread between the cables than is needed for beads of the clincher variety.

The best way, therefore, to use straight side tires on clincher rims is not to use them at all. The two types don't mix.

Concluding this subject, the importance of using flaps should not be overlooked. Whether clincher or straight side tires are employed, both rings should be in position. A few folks really don't know these last two things; more people know them and don't do them.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our kind neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy, also for the floral offerings during our recent bereavement of our beloved son and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kiser and family.

Four hundred and twenty American doughboys recently attacked a fudge fortification that had been constructed in an American Red Cross hut at Coblentz. They ate their way through the sticky barrage in what is commonly described as a jiffy. Red Cross women used an army range to prepare the treat. No casualties.

The American Red Cross has appropriated $65,000 to enable the American Women's Hospital Association to send a mobile hospital unit to Serbia for relief work in connection with typhus and other epidemics. Of this amount $25,000 is a cash donation, the balance representing supplies to be provided from existing Red Cross stocks in Europe.

MORE FARM SALES ARE GIVEN IN COUNTY PAPERS

Skidmore and Ravenwood Sales Were Not Included in the List in Yesterday's Paper.

Additional county farm sales to those published in yesterday's Democrat-Forum are taken today from the Skidmore News and the Ravenwood Gazette.

The News lists the following sales:

One day last week John C. Owens of the Harmony neighborhood southwest of town, sold his 160 acre farm to W. L. Carpenter for $32,000, or $200 per acre. A short time after, Mr. Owen purchased the T. E. Hudgens farm two miles northeast of Graham, at $220 an acre. This farm contains 92 acres.

George Krepper has made arrangements to live nearer Skidmore in the future, having made a deal for J. T. Linville's 120 acres, four miles southeast of town. George pays $210 an acre for this place.

Virgil Dawson, who has owned 20 acres just south of the Albright school house, the past few years, disposed of this tract to P. W. Ocker the other day for $185 an acre. Mr. Ocker's 70 acre farm joined it and he sold the 90 acres Monday to O. D. Harkman for $15,660.

Emmerman Hammond, who is living on a rented farm in the vicinity of Maitland, will live on land of his own next season, having purchased a 160 acre farm five miles northeast of Graham for which he pays $26,000.

Real estate deals in Ravenwood and vicinity are given in the Gazette as follws:

L. L. King sold his residence property in the south part of town to John Midyett Friday.

George Goodson recently purchased the Jake Messner farm of 120 acres adjoining him on the south. Consideration $110 per acre.

Bert Stoneburner sold his farm of 80 acres about one and one-half miles south of town to Emmett Bishop.

John Chaney sold his farm of 118 acres, about five miles east of Ravenwood to Roy Hawley of Guilford.

Six big ware houses have been established by the American Red Cross in devastated France — at Lille, Amiens, Laon, Chalons, Verdun and Mezieres; and two in Belgium, at Adinkorke and Coutrai, and from these bases are being distributed supplies to meet the most urgent needs of the thrifty peasantry.

Pretty Blonde with Sunny Disposition Seeks Mate

Wakefield, Mass., Aug. 21.—Pretty Miss Mabel H. Corey, of Albany, N. Y., who described herself a "a blonde with money and a sunny disposition" and asked the members of the Board of Selectman of Wakefield to find her a husband, now has a list of several eligibles before her for consideration.

Some of the contestants conceded the fact that they lack the necessary funds to make her happy, although, of course, Miss Corey has money of her own.

Two of the would-be wooers admitted that they were financially embarassed and a third declared that he was out of a job. Another letter was from a man who described himself as forty-five years old, and who said that all his life he had been looking for just such a wife as Miss Corey would make for him.

Still another of the suitors sent his application on a post card.

Three of the letters received were addressed to Miss Corey, care of the Selectmen.

James B. Hinkle, who sold his farm near Guilford last spring and has since been living in Stanberry, bought 48 acres 2½ miles northeast of Guilford belonging to Alma Haley yesterday for a consideration understood to be about $120 an acre.

BURLINGTON SUED FOR BIG DAMAGES

VICTIMS OF WISEMAN CAR ACCIDENT WANT $14,890

2 SUITS BY MRS. MORTON

Widow Asks $10,000 for Husband's Death, $1,500 for Son's Injuries —Stockmen Ask Damages

Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company, are named defendants in six suits filed with Henry Westfall, circuit clerk, today. Four of the suits are the outgrowth of the wreck of the Wiseman automobile July 30, when William E. Morton was killed and William M. Wiseman and Delbert Morton were injured by the southbound Burlington passenger train.

William M. Wiseman alleges that as "the direct result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of the defendants in failing to give warning of the approach of said train by ringing bell or blowing whistle, the plaintiff is injured and damaged to the extent of $300."

Martha Belle Morton brings suit against the same corporation for causing the death of her husband and sole support when said husband was riding with William Wiseman the morning of July 30. For the death of her husband the plaintiff asks of the defendant the sum of $10,000 in damages.

In another suit Martha Belle Morton sues the above named defendant for injury of her son, Delbert Morton, now the sole suport of the family. His injuries were suffered at the same time when his father was killed. The petition prays for a judgment of $1,500.

Delbert Morton brings suit against the railroad for personal injuries suffered in the previously named accident for the sum of $3,00, which are the damages he alleges he has suffered as the result of severe injuries at hand of defendant.

Joe Carden sues Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company for damages amounting to $800 which he claims due him as the result of the negligence of the defendants in failing to deliver a consignment of three bulls to a St. Joseph firm which the defendants received for shipment at Quitman.

E. A. Montgomery sues the same company for failing to deliver a consignment of fourteen head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, received at Quitman for delivery in St. Joseph. The petition prays for damages to the amount of $1,800.

GAYNOR COMMUNITY TO HAVE TWO YEAR HIGH SCHOOL NOW

A university graduate is to be secured to take charge of the school and a hall has already been fixed up with library, desks and laboratory so that efficient work can be done.

Last July the people of Gaynor voted for aconsolidated school, but in August decided to rescind their action and the organization was never effected. Now they are going to have a high school that will cost them more money individually than a consolidated school would cost them and cannot receive any state aid.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Johnson of Eleanor, Ill., have been guests since Sunday of the latter's father, John Aley and family.

TWO ARMY TRUCKS WILL ARRIVE SOON

FRED SMITH GETS WORD FROM STATE HIGHWAY DEPT

SHIPPED FROM ST. JOE

May Arrive Here Today—County Court Can Now Get Work Done This Fall With Them

County Clerk Fred Smith received word this morning from H. D. Judson, state highway commissioner, stating that two army trucks are being shipped to the county court of Nodaway county from St. Joseph. The named are of two-ton capacity. They have a Nash-Quad chassis with ammunition bodies.

The county requested that three trucks be sent them by the government, two two-ton trucks and one thre-ton truck. It is supposed that the later will come in a later shipment.

Unquestionably the arrival of the trucks will mean much to the officials of the county court who have been hindered to a great extent in their road work this summer by lack of transportation facilities.

Only the other day when work was being done on a bridge northwest of Maryville two trucks had to be hired to haul sand and cement for concrete work and it was almost impossible to get the trucks, much delay resulting therefrom.

Four bridge gangs are at work in the county and much work lies ahead of them. One gang under W. W. Randall is putting in a concrete bridge over White Cloud creek northwest of Maryville. Another gang under Chas. Hollensbee is working in Independence township near Gaynor. Joe Good is directing work on bridges in the vicinity of Hughes township near Skidmore. John Hollensbee has men working on the road between Conception and Clyde.

With two big army trucks with which to haul sand and cement, bridge work will progress at a much faster rate than it has been during the summer and much work that the county court felt like it would be impossible to get at this fall can be done.

MISS CORDIE STREET WILL JOIN FAMILY AT BETHANY

Kansas City Star Story Says That a Santa Fe Train Crashed Into the Street Car at Bliss, Okla

Miss Cordie Street, sister to two of the victims of a motor car accident in Oklahoma, received word from her father at Red Rock, Oklahoma, last night to meet her family at Bethany today where the bodies of those killed will be taken for burial.

In last nights Kansas City Star there was a short story of the accident but some of the known facts were mixed up. The story indicated that the wife of Oscar Street, deceased, was severly injured but will recover. The accident happened, according to the Star at Bliss, Okla., when a Santa Fe train crashed into the Street car.

Miss Street left last night for Bethany after receiving word to meet her parents there.

YEHLE AND ELLISON RETURN FROM EASTERN TRIP

C .W. Yehle, president of the Alderman-Yehle Dry Goods Co., and George Robb Ellison returned this morning from a trip to Eastern points. Mr. Yehle was on a buying trip for his store and visited the markets at Chicago, New York and St. Louis.

Mr. Yehle said conditions are very unsettled and there was a great deal of unrest. He stated there were no indications of prices falling and that in some instances on account of the scarcity of articles, they probably would be higher.

In talking to a Democrat-Forum representative, he said:

"There are no changes in the styles and they are very conservative. While the prices are somewhat higher, yet in some instances they are not as high as they have been as they were contracted for far enough ahead and are still very reasonable. Some articles are very scarce. The foreign buyers are numerous in the markets buying larger quantities.

"The markets are in a very unsettled condition and there is a great deal of unrest. While in New York, the street car men were out on a strike for two days and there were numerous other strikes of other laboring people."

Mr. Ellison visited many points in Canada and spent a week at Perce, Canada, with relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Somerville of this city, who are visiting there. He saw the Prince of Wales at St. Johns. He went to New York by the way of Boston and joined Mr. Yehle there. A visit at Washington and also at St. Louis concluded their trip. At Washington, they called on Senator James Reed.

Mr. Somerville will return to Maryville about the first of the month while Mrs. Somerville will remain for a longer visit at Perce.

MAN WITH EIGHT WIVES GIVES RULES FOR WOOING

(By International News Service)

Charles H. Wilson, Methodist minister's son, who admits he has eight wives living, pleaded guilty of bigamy in general sessions in New York City and was remanded to the Tombs. He recently finished an eighteen months' prison term at Waupun, Wis., for grand larceny. Wilson attributes his "marriage spree" to the actions of his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Stanton Wilson, whom he married in Davenport, Ia., and also to the fact that he was a traveling salesman. His rules for winning women, sent from his cell in the New York Tombs, follows:

"The way to win a woman is to go right after her. Women like to be swept off their feet.

"Always make your appeal to the better side in woman's nature and the good that is in them. They shun sordidness.

"Be neat and orderly about your person. Dress well, not necessarily expensively. I never paid more than $18 for a suit in my life."

Week End at "Maple Ridge."

Madame Poincare, wife of the President of the French Republic, recently visited three health clinics conducted by the American Red Cross in one of the poorest districts of Paris, and expressed her admiration for the work they have been doing.

VISITED BATTLEFIELDS

Desolation in Devastated Regions Cannot be Imagined—Use German Prisoners in Reconstruction Work

Miss Edith Wells arrived in Maryville this morning from service in France with the canteen service of the American Red Cross.

Miss Wells was in overseas servic from March to July of this year. She was stationed at Brest, France, where the American troops embarked for return to the United States. This canteen was closed in July and the workers were released. Miss Wells sailed on the Maui, August 8, reaching Philadelphia August 16.

The Red Cross is preparing to close up its affairs in France as rapidly as possible. All canteens have now been discontinued, that at Brest being the st to close. Headquarters at Paris remain open.

Before being transferred to overseas service Miss Wells was engaged in Red Cross work in San Francisco, where she was field representative for the Pacific division. She applied for overseas service in November and was in New York when the armistice obviated the necessity of sending more workersand she returned to her work in San Francisco. In March of this year she received sailing orders and was sent to the canteen at Brest.

Speaking of her work, Miss Wells said: "I liked it very much; it was hard work, but it was very interesting." As an illustration of the magnitude of the work at Brest, Miss Wells said that 30,000 buns and doughnuts were baked and distributed among the doughboys daily. An especially interesting feature of the work for Miss Wells was that with the sailors, whose ships were stationed off Brest, this occasion being the only one that was able to reach the enlisted men of the navy.

Another important division of the work was the infirmary, through which all casualties and "sick" cases passed before returning to the United States.

After the closing of the Brest canteen, Miss Wells had opportunity to visit the devastated regions of northern France, Rheims, Chauteau Thierry, Belleau Wood and other battlefields. She has a large number of snapshots of thes famous fields, some of them taken in actual battle. "You can not imagine the desolation at Rheims," said Miss Wells. "Of a city of 150,000 people, only thirteen buildings escaped the shelling of the Germans." The Rheims cathedral, which was thought to have been mutilated beyond all hope of restoration, can be partly restored, according to Miss Wells.

German prisoners are being used by the Allies in the reconstruction of the devastated regions. They are also used in the various camps in the country in similar work.

The most pitiful scenes are enacted in the return of refugees to the homes from which they were driven five years ago by the Germans in their ruthless advance. Miss Wells saw many of these wanderers.

Miss Wells is the sister of Miss Mabel Wells, C. Edwin Wells and J. T. Wells of Maryville.

BALLY-HO MAN, DESPISED BUT IMPORTANT PART OF CIRCUS

"Hurry-y-y! We're going to feed the Wild Man! Stand close to the platform!"

All of which concerns the bally-hoo man. An unexploited member of the circus life he is, working day and night, his lungs, his throat slowing turning to leather—that the wonders beneath the canvas may be told of. And just as the great canvases are needed, so is he needed. Thus it is that soon there will come the sound of his voice, the tapping of his cane and his apeals to the onlooker to "step aside." For on Saturday, Aug. 30th, the Yankee Robinson Three Ring Wild Animal Circus comes to Maryville for a day's visit on the Holt pasture grounds. According to the most iron-clad promises of those in advance of the circus, it has almost doubled in size since its last visit here—in fact, the Yankee Robinson was selected from the countless big attractions throughout the United States as the big crowning feature of the Nebraska State Fair and in company with Eddie Rickenbacker, the greatest of American "Aces", who will fly each day, these two big exhibitions are expected by the state fair officials to draw more people within the gates of the fair grounds than were ever in attendance during previous years. Many are the features this year with Yankee Robinson—for instance, Young Hackenschmidt, the world's greatest middleweight wrestler marvel will meet all comers at each performance and incidentally forfeit one hundred dollars to any man he cannot win a fall from in fifteen minutes.

By the way, a sample of everything is to be seen in the parade, even to the open animal cages and the thirty clowns. The Bally-Hoo Man? Of course, they'll be there also, for no parade would be complete without them.

PIONEER OF WEST DEAD.

Dodge City, Kans., Aug. 22.—A. J. Anthony, 89, one of the pioneer plainsmen of this part of Kansas, is dead at his home here. He is one of the little company of men who lived in Ford county for more than fifty years. Mr. Anthony came to Dodge City—it was then Fort Dodge—in the early seventies. He has seen the country grow from an army post station, stage town and "cow" town to a city of more than five thousand.

Mr. Anthony was a stage driver for Barlow Anderson over the old "Overland Stage" route from Kansas City, Mo., to Santa Fe, New Mexico. The stage made the trip in thirteen days.

NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Conception Courier.

O. E. Klass, the live wire auctioneer of near Clyde, recently purchased twenty head of pure bred Shropshie ewes, for which he paid the fancy price of $60 each. His herd buck took second prize at the State Fair, and is certainly a good one. He also has twelve head of first class Poland-China hogs. Oscar says he intends to be able in the near future to give the people of this section the best in the pure bred line, both in sheep and Poland Chinas.

Clearmont News.

W. P. Lemon and H. E. Bancroft shipped a car of cattle to St. Joseph Tuesday.

A. H. Garrett, while in Maryville last Thursday, had his car run into by a jitney. Fortunately no one was hurt but his car was somewhat damaged.

John Burch sold two Shorthorn cows Tuesday for $525, to a man from Nebraska, who has bought a half section of land near Riverton, Iowa, and is stocking it up with fine stock, these cows to be taken there.

Mrs. Ethel Lawrence had both bones broken in her right forearm last Thursday morning while cranking an auto. Dr. Dowell was called and set the broken bones and she is getting along nicely.

Mary Dilts, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Dilts, fell from a horse last Thursday and fractured the bones in her right elbow. Dr. Wiley was called and reduced the fracture and at last reports she was getting along nicely.

The three scolarships offered by the Clearmont high school for the pupils in the township making the highest grades in the eighth grade examinations, all went to the pupils of the Maple Lawn district, which was taught by Mrs. Ethel Lawrence. Burl Beam took first, a three year scholarship in the Clearmont high school; Raymond Beam second, a two year scolarship, and Ellen Milbank third, a one y ear scholarship.

There was quite a little excitement in town Monday evening for about five minutes. Wm. Johnson, Ed Teuscher and Mike Russell drove up to the Garrett garage and called for some gas, and as Ira Newlon was filling the tank flames burst out and for about two minutes it looked like the entire car would burn, but fortunately, the fire was quenched with no other injury to the car than to burn the cushions pretty badly, but Ira Newlon got one of his hands pretty badly burned, but not seriously. The car was not running while the tank was being filled and the only cause known for the fire was that Mr. Johnson, who was looking after the tank, was smoking and that is thought to be the cause. This should be a lesson to all to let the smoking go while handling gasoline.

Parnell Sentinel.

Ernest Hughes, another Parnell soldier boy, returned here Sunday. He was discharged at Camp Dodge, Iowa, Saturday. Ernest was in the quartermaster's department and was overseas eight months, having been sent over after the armistice was signed. He is sure looking fine and weighs considerable more than he did when he entered the service. He is visiting his brother, Alvin, east of town.

The airplane that was to have been here during the two days of the races arrived here Sunday morning about 11 o'clock with Lieut. Hyde of Kansas City in charge. He came from Maryville here and was accompanied by Frank Schumacher. On leaving Maryville they soared over Ravenwood, Stanberry, Albany and other towns, sometimes at an altitude of 4,000 feet. After circling over Parnell a number of times the machine landed in the race grounds just north of town. The first person to take a ride was Miss Pauline Jones, followed by her father, Ben Allyn Jones, Jimmy O'Brien and Cecil Brown. No more passengers were taken up until about 5 o'clock. Alva Breit of Worth was the first, followed by Miss Opal Ingram, Orley Miller of Sheridan, Ed West of Gaynor, Drexel (Jack) Morgan and Frederick Breit, Jr., Frederick Breit, Sr., and Ernest Wheatley. This ended the flying for the day. Four passengers were taken up Monday morning—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rhoades and little daughter, Margaret, and George Wilson. About 3 o'clock Lieut Hyde and mechanician left for Savannah where they are making flights this week at the fair grounds.

The new bank is expected to open between now and the first of September. Most of the fixtures have arrived and the cashier's household goods arrived the first of the week.

We understand that Elias Klaas, our mayor, purchasel last week the Barmann business property adjoining his butcher shop on the east and will erect a new building for a millinery store.

The Independence township Sunday school picnic and track meet that was to have been held at Gaynor yesterday has been postponed to next Wednesday, August 27. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

A number of cars of wheat have been shipped out of here since the threshing season began. Three cars went south Monday night.

W. A. Stickle, while threshing on the John Garrard farm last Thursday, came across a rattlesnake two feet long that had six rattles on it. Mr. Stickle killed the reptile and has the rattles in his possession. It is seldom one sees a snake of this kind any more, but at one time they were very numerous.

Paul Morin, who has been in the hospital corps of the U. S. navy, returned home Tuesday noon. When he first enlisted he was sent to San Francisco where he was stationed until six months ago, when he was transferred to Philadelphia. Paul did not get overseas. He was mustered out at St. Louis Monday. His many friends are glad to see him home again.

Elias Klaas commenced dismantling the old frame business house south of the park Monday morning that he purchased from Barmann, the auto man, last week. The building was originally built for a harness shop soon after the town started in 1887, but for a number of years it has been used for other businesses. Millinery store, pool hall, residence, printing office, etc., are among the uses it has been put to.

Geo. Sturgeon is another Fairviewite who had extra good wheat, his yield being about 24 bushels to the acre, and it tested 58 or better, putting him in the $2.05 per bushel class. He attributes his success as a wheat grower to working the ground. He plows, double discs and harrows the ground, getting it like a garden before drilling his wheat, and he thinks it pays.

Dr. Kirk has been very busy welcoming little strangers into our midst. Of these the only boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, and girls arrived at the homes of Roy Clark, Arch Martin, Dan Shearer and Don Albright. The Martin baby has been christened Sarah Florence.

Postmaster Wray is wondering if the government will soon be wanting him to sell Bevo along with the batter cakes.—Pickering Items in Hopkins Journal.

Our elevator men figure that threshing is about half over in this vicinity. Thousands of buhsels of wheat have already been shipped from here and more would have been shipped if cars could have been secured.—Pickering Items in Hopkins Journal.

Last week Dr. Maxwell bought of Miss Eva Brainard the two brick buildings near the Presbyterian church now occupied by the Burnet music store and by Miss Grace Gladman. The doctor will eventually use both rooms for offices but for the present will occupy the corner building, meaning that the new music man will have to find a new home.

Some of us were given the privilege this week of seeing a check for $5,563.90, which had been made to the order of A. L. Pistole, one of the south side farmers. This amount was paid for English blue grass seed, of which Ava had 40 acres, making an average of $84 per acre for the seed alone besides a lot of good pasturage for his stock.

Barnard Bulletin.

Sam Armstrong took out a Fordson tractor and gang plow attachment Monday and is now working at his wheat ground getting ready for next year's crop.

Fred Carter purchased a new Waterloo Boy 12-25 tractor and 3-bottom gang plow Saturday. Both tractors were sold through the McCleave hardware.

Robert Pittsenberger of near Bedison had his Dodge car stolen at the Maryville fair and has heard nothing of it since, although the authorities have been on the lookout for it. Several cars were stolen at Maryville during the fair.

Little Mary Breit, daughter of Walter Breit and wife, ran a part of a needle in her foot on Wednesday before the picnic. The needle was removed Monday of this week. The misfortune little Mary considerable pain.

Nancy B., 4-year-old saddle mare belonging to R. W. Bridges, took second prize in the horse fair at Savannah, Tuesday evening, in the saddle class. Bridges has had his mare in training for some time and she promises to take several ribbons as soon as she is thoroughly trained.

Chautauqua this year will be held on September 3 to 7 inclusive, and the dates are drawing near. It is high time that every family in the community is making plans to hear every number of this assembly. At a meeting of the guarantors Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: Clyde Perkins, chairman; C. E. Goff, secretary; J. F. Tulloch and Elmer Smith, grounds committee. Every guarantor is a committee to see that tickets are sold in sufficient numbers to make the chautauqua pay out.

Burlington Junction Post.

Boyer & Plummer, local stock buyers, shipped a total of 117 loads of stock from July 1, 1918, to July 1, 1919 instead of 84 loads, as was reported in last week's issue of the Post. The records at the depot from which the information was secured, were not complete, hence the mistake. This would make a total of 276 loads shipped from this point last year.

S. S. Webb was exhibiting some Sudan grass Tuesday that was grown on his farm southeast of town. He drilled the seed about the 15th of May and the grass made a wonderful growth, reaching a height of 8 feet and 8 inches in three months. He says it will yield two tons or more an acre. The possibilities of this grass are almost unlimited and there will doubtless be more of it sowed each year.

Edwin F. Caldwell has bought the old Star barn and two lots at the corner of Main and Davis streets, of W. H. Jones. He will move the barn to one of the Caldwell farms west of town, but has not decided what disposition to make of the lots. A little later he may erect a modern building on them.

Jesse F. Robertson, judge of probate, is moving this week to Maryville to make his home. For the present he will store his household goods in Burlington Junction and he and Mrs. Robertson will live at the hotel. R. N. Barber, who purchased the Robertson residence in Burlington Junction, will move to it.

T. F. Brady of Stanberry and "Dutch" Horn of this place had a head-on collision at the Roseberry hill east of town Sunday night. Horn was ascending the hill when the Brady car started down. He pulled as far to the right as possible, but Brady evidently lost control of his machine, for it veered to the left and struck the Horn car head-on. Both machines were badly damaged. The windshield, front wheels and radiator of the Horn car were broken and the Brady car did not fare any better. Mr. Brady paid the damages and had repairs made at a local garage.

The guarantors of the Burlington Junction chautauqua are the following: C. B. Zarn, G. C. Trusty, G. L. Yaple, R. N. Barber, T. A. Corken, C. I. Hann, Dr. M. Carter, Ernest Snider, J. A. # ST. LOUIS TRUCKS ON BUSINESS TOUR

FAVORABLE COMMENT

Considerable Enthusiasm Aroused Among Farmers—Need of Hard-Surfaced Roads Emphasized

St. Louis, Aug. 23.—The advantage to the farmer of trucking his produce to markket, the need for St. Louis to advertise itself throughout the smaller towns of Missouri and the handicap of the lack of good roads has been demonstrated by the 585-mille tour of St. Louis trucks which has just ended here.

Twenty-isx trucks started on a trip last Friday, which included many of the smaller towns in central Missouri, with the State Fair at Sedalia as its destination. Only twenty-four trucsk returned, two of the original trucks returned, two of the original

Robert E. Lee, editor of the Auto Review, who was pilot of the trip, says that the expedition was successful from every point of view. Farmers were enthusiastic over the idea of using more trucks and several sales were made.

That the people appreciated the interest which the St. Louis automobile trade and the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce were taking in them was evident from our reception all along the line," he says.

"The trip convinced us that St. Louis long has neglected its nearby business friends. We have sent trade-boosting trains to Alabama, Nebraska and Texas, but we have taken it for granted that the merchants within 100 miles of here were our friends. We stopped at nearly every town enroute, spreading truck and St. Louis propaganda."

That Missouri is in need of hard roads was demonstrated by the trip, Lee thinks. He says money should be spent improving the roads to induce tourists to go through Missouri towns.

"Transcontinental touring through Missouri never will be at its best until hard roads are built across the state and until bridges take the place of ferries. The ferries at the Gasconade and the Osage river are primitive affairs. One is pulled by hand and the other by a steam launch. The ferry at Boonville is pulled by steamboat. We lost from four to seven hours at each ferry."

Charles A. Bothell, manager of the freight department of the Packard Motor company of Missouri, says: Farmers realize that the use of trucks for transportation is of importance in lowering the cost of living. Fifty or sixty miles represent a four hour run by truck. Without trucks farmers living a great distance from railroads will not raise perishable foodstuffs because of inability to transport them to market."

SAYS MISSOURI LAND SELLS FOR $1,800 AN ACRE FIGURE

Former Representative W. T. Heatman Has to Prove His Statement to Some Illinois Men

Jefferson City, Mo.—Former representative W. T. Heathman of Randolph County, now a traveling salesman, is responsible for statement that there is farm land in Missouri selling for $1,800 per acre.

Heathman made this statement after listening to the boasting of Illinois men that land in that state is being sold for as high as $350 per acre.

The $1,800 per acre Missouri land is down in the strawberry belt of Southeast Missouri, where one acre of berries will sometimes produce enough money to buy the entire crop of a small farm in Illinois.

The Illinois men doubted the statement made by Heathman but he produced the documentary evidence and further referred them to various responsible people of Neosho, Carthage and Anderson and other places in Southeast Missouri for verification.

PROHIBITION IN OMAHA HITS RAILROADS.

Omaha, Nebr., Aug. 23.—Along with fewer broken heads, fewer jags, fewer "lost" suitcases and other things that accompany a "good time" in the big city, Omaha has sold fewer railroad tickets to Kansas City and St. Joseph.

"Where we formerly sold a hundred tickets to Kansas City and St. Joe," said Joe Milk, stationmaster here, "we now sell maybe twenty-five of thirty."

War-time prohibition is the cause, he said.

More than 22,000,000 knitted articles were turned out by Red Cross women from the time the United States entered the war to the end of last March.

MISSOURI STATE LETTER.

Jefferson City, Aug. 23.—T. S. Mosby, chairman of the Cole county Democratic committee, has declined on behalf of that body a proposition from the Republican committee of the county to join in calling a primary election on the League of Nations.

Personally, Mosby is inclined to back Senator James A. Reed in his fight against President Wilson and the League, but there is little doubt as to the sentiment of other local party leaders being in favor of the League and against Reed.

Sentiment against co-operating in the movement to call such a primary election received a decided black eye when the women's auxiliary committee of the Democratic committee in Cole county passed unanimously a resolution endorsing the League and calling upon Senators Reed and Spencer to vote for it without reservations.

The primary election proposition advocated by the Republican committee was also discouraged by C. W. C. Irwin and other Republican leaders.

Thousands of Reed, Borah and Johnson speeches are being "franked out" from Jefferson City to voters in Cole, Osage, Miller, Gasconade, Moniteau and other Missouri counties in an effort to create anti-League of Nations sentiment.

Refusal of the Democratic county committee to join in the movement kills the proposed primary.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 23.—Mrs. J. B. Allen, wife of the clerk of the clery of the supereme court, is critically ill at her home in this city and is not expected to recover. ### M. U. COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE INSTALLS NEW GRAIN TESTS.

Laboratory Will Give Free Service to Missouri Farmers.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 21.—A grain testing laboratory which duplicates in all essential details the federal grain supervision laboratories in Kansas City and St. Louis, has been installed in the University of Missouri College of Agriculture.

Wheat, oats and corn are to be tested to determine if they measure up to the standards set by the United States Department of Agriculture. A laboratory course will be given as a part of the University farm crops course.

The laboratory is in charge of W. C. Etheridge, who says that all samples of grain sent in by Missouri farmers will be tested free of charge. According to Doctor Etheridge there is a two-fold benefit: The farmer is able to find out how he is treated in the market, and the College of Agriculture secures statistics as to the grades and quality of grain raised in Missouri.

"So far as I know," says, Mr. Etheredge, "there is no other college which has this feature as a part of its agriculture department."

Samples of grain will be tested to find the weight per bushel, amount of chaff and foreign matter and the percentage of moisture contained. These are the three tests which determine the grade of the grain and the subsequent price on the market.

SENATOR REED SAYS PARTY WILL RIGHT ITSELF SOON

Soothing Letter Preceeds Meeting to Act on the Endorsement of the League Covenant by the Democratic State Committee

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—Senator James A Reed has sent an apeal to Missouri Irish Democrats, asking that they not leave the party because the Democratic state committee endorsed the League of Nations at a meeting here August 11. The appeal is contained in a letter received by John P. Leahy, who, with other Irish-Americans, threatened to leave the party if the state committee approved the league pact.

The senator's letter is to be read tonight at a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom, called to indorse the action of the comimttee which appeared before the Democratic state committee. The organization also will discuss the advisability of urging a state convention to denounce the league.

Read's Letter to Leahy.

Senator Reed's letter to Leahy reads in part:

"Your correctly state the facts when you say that a substantial part of the strength of the Democratic party comes from citizens of Irish birth or Irish antecedents. I believe that all candid men who have regard for the old party must admit that a general exodus from it of the members just referred to would be a party disaster from which it would not soon recover.

"When it (the state committee) assumes to speak without authority and undertakes to usurp powers the people have reserved for themselves it merely attempts to constitute itself a boss of the party. Efforts of that kind always result in detriment to the party.

Not a Party Question.

"The question is not now a party question. It may never be a party question. The action of the twenty-nine members of the Democratic state committee can no more make a party question of it than the action of twenty-nine men and women meeting in any part of the state can make a party question of it.

"The whole atmosphere may be cleared, the whole issue may be in the background before the next campaign.

"However dear this question may therefore be to your hearts, and it cannot be closer to you than it is to me, it would seem that organized movement to leave the party would be a great mistake, and I most earnestly hope that no such action will be taken.

Confidence in the Party.

"I feel, therefore, a supreme confidence in the fact that our party will live through the difficulties and uncertainties of the present hour, and will kep its feet upon solid Democratic ground. And that it will do no act which will force men who love their country to leave the party.

"Why should the action of twenty-nine men, who hapen to be temporary state committeemen, drive from the party thousands of solid, rock-ribbed Democrats, every one of whom has the same rights in the party as those gentlemen who happen to be temporary committeemen?

"Let all good Democrats who are opposed to the League of Nations and who want to preserve our rights and liberties, continue to battle. Public sentiment, in my opinion, is undoubtedly swinging our way. The document which was at first regarded as a sacred one, is now a subject for open debate. People are beginning to know that instead of being a mere agreement, which will put the world at peace, that after all it is only an offensive and defensive alliance by which we are bound to fight the battles of other countries and send our boys to die in the cause of foreign countries."

LOST BY M. U. SPORTS

Athletic Financial Statement Shows Deficit of $8,667.17

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 22—The financial statement of the athletic department of the University of Missouri issued yesterday by J. B. Gibson shows a total deficit of $8,667.17. Of this sum $6,149.57 was lost last year, due chiefly to canceled games, lack of interest, the S. A. T. C. and the war conditions.

Time in the history of basket ball at Missouri, that sport showed a profit, the usual deficit of from $200 to $700 changing to a profit of $210.

Due to the breakup in semesters and the result that many students will refuse to buy the all season sport tickets, which have sold for $5 in the past, it may be necessary to sell tickets for each sport this year. While it has been mentioned that the school might profit by selling individual tickets to each game, this idea has been looked on with disfavor by the athletic board.

Usual profits from football will more than make up this deficit, it was pointed out by Acting Director Gibson yesterday.

A TIRE TALK FOR MOTORISTS

Precautions That Should be Taken in Applying Tires to Assure Longer Life.

The careful application of tires is quite as necessary as the choice of the correct type. Especially should the best adaption of tire to rim be made a subject of concern.

Before applying a tire all rust and other foreign matter should be carefully removed from the rim. If rust has formed on the rim it will cause trouble at some later time, apart from the corroding influence of the rust. If tires have been driven deflated at any time, mud will probably have accumulated on the rims, and unless this is removed the tires cannot seat or fit properly. The danger of pinching inner tubes can best be reduced to a minimum by dusting soapstone or powdered mica on the rims, so that the tire beads will slip into the correct position easily.

Inflate the inner tubes just enough to round them out before placing them inside the casing. Do not use tubes of the wrong size, and be sure that the valves are equipped with spreaders adapted to the particular type of casting used, whether instance, clincher, quick detachable, or straight side. Valves in Firestone tubes are equipped with a universal spreader, and therefore are suitable for use in all three types.

Dust the inside of the case and the inner tube with powdered mica or talc. This will reduce friction and prevent adhesion of the tube to the case after they have been heated in service.

When the tires have been removed for some reason, it is a good idea, when reapplying, to reverse them, that is, to place the worn sides of the tires toward the car. It is not a fact, that almost all of the side wear on a tire comes on the outside; that is, on the side away from the car. The foregoing sounds Irish, I know, but it is a fact, nevertheless. This is due to road construction, rut wear, curb scraping, and such things. The life of a tire may be prolonged to such an extent that a great deal higher mileage may be secured by turning the tires about occasionally to secure even wear upon both sides.

I said that tire and rim should be suited to each other. If straight side tires are to be used on clincher rims, filler beads ought to be fitted in the rim clincher to keep the side walls of the casings from being chafed and gouged. To avoid as much as possible the tendency of straight side tubes to lift up from the rims at the inner edges of cables and in this way permit a rolling motion sideways, it is advisable to have more spread between the cables than is needed for beads of the clincher variety.

The best way, therefore, to use straight side tires on clincher rims is not to use them at all. The two types don't mix.

Concluding this subject, the importance of using flaps should not be overlooked. Whether clincher or straight side tires are employed, both rings should be in position. A few folks really don't know these last two things; more people know them and don't do them.

Four hundred and twenty American doughboys recently attacked a fudge fortification that had been constructed in an American Red Cross hut at Coblentz. They ate their way through the sticky barrage in what is commonly described as a jiffy. Red Cross women used an army range to prepare the treat. No casualties.

The American Red Cross has appropriated $65,000 to enable the American Women's Hospital Association to send a mobile hospital unit to Serbia for relief work in connection with typhus and other epidemics. Of this amount $25,000 is a cash donation, the balance representing supplies to be provided from existing Red Cross stocks in Europe.

Pretty Blonde with Sunny Disposition Seeks Mate

Wakefield, Mass., Aug. 21.—Pretty Miss Mabel H. Corey, of Albany, N. Y., who described herself a "a blonde with money and a sunny disposition" and asked the members of the Board of Selectman of Wakefield to find her a husband, now has a list of several eligibles before her for consideration.

Some of the contestants conceded the fact that they lack the necessary funds to make her happy, although, of course, Miss Corey has money of her own.

Two of the would-be wooers admitted that they were financially embarassed and a third declared that he was out of a job. Another letter was from a man who described himself as forty-five years old, and who said that all his life he had been looking for just such a wife as Miss Corey would make for him.

Still another of the suitors sent his application on a post card.

Three of the letters received were addressed to Miss Corey, care of the Selectmen.

James B. Hinkle, who sold his farm near Guilford last spring and has since been living in Stanberry, bought 48 acres 2½ miles northeast of Guilford belonging to Alma Haley yesterday for a consideration understood to be about $120 an acre.
